

The great journey of humanity

About this document

- These few slides bundle a selection of Schemas from the Free Man Creator initiative, showing The great journey of humanity on three levels:
 - Part I: cosmic perspective of Man developing as part of Earth planetary stage part of solar system evolution
 - Part II: the great story of humanity on Earth .. a view on the path of four epochs (from the third to the sixth epoch)
 - Part III: zooming in on the next 3000 years which are a critical period for each soul on this developmental pathway
- Notes
 - this deck contains only the schema views, for explanations and storyline please refer to self-study of the various related topic pages on anthroposophy.eu or freemancreator.org.
 - the Schemas can be searched for on the site (FMC00.xyz) to explore topic pages and download illustrations in larger format
 - this is Version 2 of this document of 2022-07

Earth planetary stage of evolution is the start of a new cosmos ..

.. given by the Christ Impulse
at the Mystery of Golgotha milestone phases in the redemption of evil allowing for lost souls to be gained back

Perspective of evil and role in the development of Freedom

Evil as a consequence of the choice of the Gods to enable freedom and allow evil counterforces to strengthen the development of spiritual love

.. if it were impossible for Man to sink into the abyss of evil, he would not be able to attain what on the one hand we call love and on the other freedom, since .. freedom is inseparably connected with the idea of love.

1908-06-30-GA104

Old Sun

.. the original 'fault' did not lie with those who remained behind. If the Cherubim had accepted the proffered sacrifice, the Luciferic beings could not have remained behind; they would have had no opportunity of embodying themselves in that substance. To make it possible for beings to become thus independent, renunciation previously took place. Thus, in cosmic evolution it is the case that the gods themselves have called their opponents into being.

If the gods had not renounced the sacrifice, beings would not have been able to oppose them. .. we must not look for the origin of evil in the so-called 'evil' beings, but in the good beings, who, through their resignation first brought evil about through those beings who were able to bring it into the world.

... the possibility of evil, given by the resignation of divine beings, is absolutely required in order to have freedom. The gods did not shrink from the evil, which alone could give the possibility of freedom. Had the gods avoided evil, the world would be poor, without variety. For the sake of freedom the gods had to allow evil to enter the world, and for this reason they had to acquire the power enabling them to lead evil back again to good. This power is such as can only be acquired as a consequence of renunciation, resignation.

1911-11-14-GA132

Old Moon

.. because certain SoM' were given orders, men first received the possibility of reaching their goal by their own strength, a thing which even the highest H1 cannot do of themselves, they can only follow the immediate impulses given them by the Godhead. A certain number of the SoM were now ordered to oppose, so they threw themselves into the way of development. In what is called the 'origin of evil' they could but perform the will of the Godhead who, by means of evil, wishes to develop more powerful good.

.. The Spirits of Form could not have grown wicked of themselves, nor could the archai, nor could the archangels. ... when the latter were men (CoC4) on Old Sun, the SoM had not yet been ordered to oppose, there was as yet no possibility of becoming wicked.

The first who had the possibility of becoming evil were the angels, for this could only happen after the development of Old Moon. There, from Old Sun to Old Moon, the Fight in Heaven took place.

A part of the angels avoided and would not be seduced by the forces which had to introduce hindrances, they held to the way of the old nature. ... hence we now come to two categories .. first those angels who fling themselves into that which the SoM produced during the Fight in Heaven; these are beings who on account of their later deeds we call Luciferic. These beings became united to the human astral bodies during the Earth evolution and gave to men the possibility of evil, and also the possibility of developing through their own free power ... so that in the sequence of hierarchies we have only men; and some angels, who have the possibility of freedom.

Future Jupiter

During the Future Jupiter stage .. at a certain point of time the sun departs once more.. and after a time, the union of Sun and Future Jupiter" again occurs, and the transformation gradually proceeds over into the Future Venus stage. (1910-GA013)

.. when the middle of a human life on Future Jupiter arrives, at this midpoint of life on Future Jupiter, something will enter in during a period of time that we can symbolize as three earth days. ... If there are souls during the Future Jupiter stage in whom all memory of the Christ has been erased, because they did not choose to fill themselves with understanding of the Christ event during their existence on Earth, then a fearsome judgment day will come for them.

Christ will not take them on to nurture and sustain them during the second half of their life on Future Jupiter, but instead will point the way with one hand to the place where Ahriman will take their physical remains, and with the other to the place where Lucifer will lead their soul away. (1915-04-03-GA161)

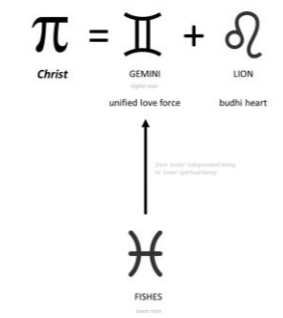

Future Venus

During the Future Venus stage the Earth remains united with the Sun .. during that stage a special cosmic body splits off that contains all the beings who have resisted evolution, a so to speak 'irredeemable moon', which now moves toward an evolution, for the character of which no expression can be found because it is too dissimilar to anything that Man can experience on Earth.

Apostle 3 is blocking with hands, Seventh age a lagging culture

Interesting symmetry in the V between Christ Jesus and 'John' (who looks absent) See also: John Baptist/Evangelist with Christ-Jesus together in 4th age. John carries further the message & work so represents the fourth age Observe the direction toward the left, except for: next apostle's 'moving' dynamic connecting to John but actually going against the natural direction (to the left). Link with betrayal in GA91 lecture.

1-2-3 are and look most closely towards the Christ, first three cultural ages on the outlook

Quote Maitreya Buddha from 1911-11-04-GA130

Quote from 1908-06-25-GA104

Quote from 1910-GA013 (Outline of Esoteric Science)

Maitreya Buddha – the bringer of Good.

.. during the final period of time, before the great war of all against all, the situation will be such that, as speech is at present the bearer of thoughts and conceptions and as it will later be the bearer of the feelings of the heart, so will it then carry the moral element, the moral impulses, transmitting these from soul to soul. At present the word cannot have a moral influence. Such words can by no means be produced by our larynx as it is today. But such a power of spirit will one day exist.

Words will be spoken through which the human being will receive moral power. Three thousand years after our present time will the Bodhisattva become the Buddha, and his teaching will then cause impulses to stream directly into humanity.

.. only human beings embodying the fourth to seventh ages of Postatlantean epoch will be able to cope with the reconfigured earthly circumstances of the next Sixth epoch. The inner nature of these souls will correspond to what the Earth has then become. Other souls will have chosen to create the prerequisites for participation in it.

The souls mature enough to face the conditions that will exist after the next great upheaval will be the ones who succeeded in imbuing themselves with the sensible knowledge with their own forces of intellect and feeling at the transition from the fifth to the sixth cultural ages in the Postatlantean epoch. The fifth and sixth cultural ages are the decisive ones.

In the seventh cultural age, although the souls who have achieved the goal of the sixth will continue to develop accordingly, the changed circumstances in their surroundings will provide little opportunity for the others to make up for lost time. The next opportunity will present itself only in the distant future.

The fifth of the Atlantean races founded our civilizations, of which the sixth will found the future civilization after the great War of All against All. ...

The sixth cultural age will be the foundation for the new civilizations which will arise in the Sixth epoch after the great War of All against All. .. just as our civilization arose after the Atlantean epoch.

.. the seventh cultural age will be characterized by the lukewarm, and continue into the next epoch just as the sixth and seventh races of the Atlantean epoch continued into our epoch as races hardened and stiffening.

1908-06-25-GA104

"the fifth and sixth cultural ages are decisive" (1910-GA013), as "only a third of the population reaches the developmental goal at the end of the fifth epoch" (1904-10-24-GA090A).

(a second third will reach this later)
